

March 21, 2020 ~Prayerfully Acknowledging God's Attributes~
Father God, what a comfort it is to know you love us! What a privilege it is to know you as our Father God, Our Savior Son, and The Holy Spirit living in us! Even as our worldliness and ways of living seem to be crumbling down around us, we acknowledge and remind ourselves all we've learned about you since that time you came into our lives. All you've done with us and for us in the past gives us hope even today as we see graphs and hear of numbers of afflicted that are more and more overwhelming. Hear our prayers as we remind ourselves of your character. Help us to be still now, to remember your attributes, and to know that you are our God.

We are thankful for your goodness shown to us in boundless generosity and your desire to bring joy and blessings into our lives. We foolishly take so much of your goodness for granted when your goodness makes our lives so good.

Our hearts and minds recognize your merciful and gracious attitudes toward us. You know our guilt better than we do, and we are humbly thankful that In your mercy, you give us what we do not deserve, and by your grace you don't give us what we actually do deserve.

How precious to us is your compassion that flows like a fountain showering us with love in all our most difficult circumstances! Before we even lift up prayers, you already know our most desperate need, our weakest weakness, and our greatest failure. When we are face down in the muck of our
